

STUDENT FEES – UNDERGRADUATE

All fees are mandatory unless otherwise noted. Fees are non-refundable after the add/drop period. All fees are subject to annual change.

Student ID Card Fee (ONEC): $2.24 per semester

This fee is collected in support of the Student ID system. A card is issued to the student at the start of their first semester at UNBC and serves as the primary piece of student identification on campus (including the library).

The card can be used as an electronic wallet for students who are participating in the meal plan (cafeteria) or book plan (bookstore), the picture ensures the card cannot be used by another person.

Each semester, the student collects a validation sticker that serves as a bus pass (which also allows them unrestricted access to the Four Seasons Leisure Pool and the Prince George Aquatic Centre). The picture on the ID must match the person.

If the card is unusable from normal wear and tear damage it can be replaced free of charge; otherwise, a fee of $15.00 will apply.

Intramural Recreation and Fitness Fee (FITN)¹: $64.19 per semester

This fee is collected each semester in support of the Northern Sports Centre facility. Students assessed this fee have unlimited access to the Northern Sports Centre and other student recreational opportunities such as intramural sports.

Please note that this fee is not a membership fee and is assessed to all applicable students whether or not they choose to use the facility. Students may not opt out of this fee.

Registered students, who have not been assessed the fee but would like to access the Northern Sport Centre (NSC) facility and fitness services, may proceed to the NSC front desk to sign up and pay $62.93 (plus tax) for a UNBC Student Fitness pass. Please note a $10 (including tax), non-refundable access key fee applies.

For more information on the NSC facility, please refer to the following web page: <http://www.unbc.ca/northern-sport-centre>.

Building Fee (BLDG)²: $44.54 per semester

This fee is collected on behalf of NUGSS in support of the Northern University Student Centre (NUSC). This building is student operated and houses the administration offices for NUGSS, CFUR Radio, PGPIRG, Over the Edge student media and the Pride Centre. The Thirsty Moose Pub (and NUSC catering) and Degrees Coffee Co can also be found in this building. The building also provides study space, meeting space, hang out space, clubs rooms and the NUSC event space.

WUSC Refugee Fee (WUSC): $5.00 per semester

This fee is collected on behalf of World University Service of Canada (WUSC) – Prince George. WUSC is a cross-Canada club which focuses on providing education to all individuals, in order to work towards social change. In addition to the fees collected from the students, the club also does annual fundraising. These monies are used to sponsor a student refugee to come to Canada, obtain citizenship, and engage in post-secondary studies at UNBC.

For further information regarding WUSC, please contact NUGSS at (250) 960-6427, nugss-hello@unbc.ca or refer to the national website at <http://wusc.ca/>.

U-Pass Fee (UPSS)⁷: $60.00 per semester

This fee is collected on behalf of NUGSS. This fee allows students to unlimited access to the City of Prince George bus system as well as the Four Seasons Leisure Pool and the Prince George Aquatic Centre. A validation sticker can be collected from the University Cashiers each semester to be affixed to the Student ID Card. This sticker is non-transferable and the student must show their card to the bus driver/pool reception to receive services free of charge.

For further information regarding the U-Pass, contact NUGSS at (250) 960-6427, nugss-hello@unbc.ca or <http://bctransit.com/prince-george/fares/prince-george-u-pass>.

Service Fee - International (MICA)¹¹: $190.00 per semester

Medical insurance coverage is mandatory in British Columbia and at UNBC. Assessed to international students only, the Service Fee – International is an enrollment fee for a Canadian Medical Insurance Plan. All international students are directed to the International Education Office to determine eligibility and process enrollment. Once a student can provide proof of enrollment in BC health care coverage, the fee can be waived.

For further information please contact the International Office at (250) 960-5858 or ie@unbc.ca.

Health and Dental Plan (NHAD)¹²: $234.60 per fall semester (all students)/$156.40 per winter semester (new students only)

The Health and Dental Plan fee is assessed to all full time students (Prince George campus only) engaged in studies in the fall semester only. The Health and Dental plan provides coverage for the twelve month period from September to August and covers such items as prescription drugs, vision care and dental care. This plan is mandatory but students who are already covered under a comparable plan are eligible to opt out of this coverage in the first two weeks of the semester at <http://www.studentcare.ca/>. In early October the plan sponsor provides a list of accepted opt outs to UNBC and the opt outs are processed on the student account at that time. Students who are new admits to the University in the winter semester are automatically assessed a prorated fee for coverage for the eight month period from January to August.

For further information about this plan please contact NUGSS at (250) 960-6427, nugss-hello@unbc.ca or <http://www.nugss.unbc.ca/services-section/health-and-dental-plan/>.
