

Occupational Health & Safety (OH&S)

Professional Designation

PATH 1

Occupational Health & Safety (OH&S) Certificate from UNBC Continuing Studies

10 courses
300 education hours

+

Technical Practice

1 year of OH&S work experience where 35% or more of duties are OH&S related

=

Canadian Registered Safety
Technician (CRST)® eligible

PATH 2

OH&S Certificate from UNBC Continuing Studies

10 courses
300 education hours

+

OH&S Diploma

600 education hours

+

4 years or more relevant health & safety work experience

=

Canadian Registered Safety
Professional (CRSP)® eligible

Equivalent to 900
educational hours
(minimum requirement)

* The CRST® and CRSP® certifications are professional designations that recognize your established knowledge, skills and competencies according to the standards determined by the Board of Canadian Registered Safety Professionals®.