

Seminar Series

HOSTED BY: DR. DARLENE SANDERSON

SHARING LIVED EXPERIENCES BY CULTURAL TRUTH TELLING

Presentation at a glance:

- Acknowledgement of Territory
- sełłəmah (Joan Morris) will speak about her lived experiences at Nanaimo Indian Hospital intersecting Kuper Island Residential School. Because of the assaults she faced as a student at KIRS she was often hospitalized as she suffered from the beatings of Sister Superior (children were sent from Kuper Island Residential school to Nanaimo Indian Hospital for many reasons, even if the children had no ailments or sickness).
- sełłəmah's resilience through self-forgiveness and forgiveness
- Cyril will speak about his grandfather's talʔnəx^w (Understanding) and his one-day experience out of the years at Nanaimo Indian Hospital.
 - Dr. Johnson will speak about Indian Hospitals in a broader context.
- 15-minute question and answers
- 15-minute ceremony conducted by Elder Joan Morris

JANUARY 9TH, 12:30 - 2:00

Join us in person in 7-238 Weldwood or see our website for zoom
information

THIS PRESENTATION IS SUPPORTED BY: