

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

HONORARY DOCTOR OF LAWS DEGREE

The Senate of the University of Northern British Columbia is inviting nominations for the University's most distinguished public award, the Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree:

- The award of an Honorary Degree is recognition by the University of excellence, eminence and accomplishment in scholarship, research, teaching, the creative arts, business or other fields of service to the public.
- Nominees will have established a regional, provincial, national or international reputation for excellence in their field of endeavor, will have made a notable contribution in the service of humanity and, be a role model exemplifying the vision and mission of the University.

Nominations received in the Fall semester will be considered in the current selection cycle, and award recipients may be recognized at the subsequent Convocation Ceremony.

A UNBC Faculty or Academic Program will normally host Honorary Degree recipients. Nominator(s) who are not affiliated with UNBC may be asked to play a role in hosting the recipient.

Nominations may be submitted by any member of the University or broader community, and must include:

1. A completed Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree nomination form;
2. A current curriculum vitae (résumé) of the nominee, if available;
3. The UNBC Faculty or Program of affiliation of the nominator(s), if applicable.

Please visit the UNBC website www.unbc.ca/convocation/honorary-degree-call-nominations to fill out an online form, or contact the Recording Secretary below for a nomination form.
