

SUBJECT: HONORARIA - GENERAL

Normally, the University does not provide honoraria for guest speakers. However, in special circumstances (e.g. where the speaker is giving a public lecture, where the individual is an author who gives lectures as a means of earning his/her living) an honorarium may be provided.

Honoraria are to be provided solely to external resource people. University faculty and staff are ineligible for receipt of honoraria for guest lectures which support the academic operations of UNBC.

Honoraria may vary but normally will not exceed $100. Budgets for guest speakers must include travel expenses.
