

SUBJECT: ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF JOB APPLICATIONS

Human Resources will institute a practice of acknowledging only the applications and resumes from applicants who are short listed in a competition (this will be the case for all positions below the level of Director). All advertisements for these positions will include a statement utilizing the following wording, "only those candidates short listed will be contacted".